Accessories for Urban Electric Mobility

Take tour, Stay cool

Urban travel is a particularly topical issue and sustainable transport is a growing trend. Ducati meets these new market needs by signing a license agreement with M.T. Distribution S.r.l., an Italian company already present in the sector for over 40 years, for the development and distribution of different models including folding e-bikes, electric scooters and a complete line of accessories.

The proposal is divided into three brands Ducati, Ducati Corse and Scrambler Ducati and is designed for those who want to move around the city with style and originality.

During the development of the products, special attention was paid to the design, curated by Ducati Design Centre: the result is an innovative collection with an attractive design.
